

Evangelizing and Discipling Women

Course objectives:

The student will investigate biblical models of evangelism and discipleship for women in today's world and will practice and grow in her own evangelistic conversations and discipling relationships.

Course outline:

- I. Biblical models of evangelism for today
- II. Individual and group-centered tools and resources for evangelism
- III. The discipling relationship
- IV. A practical plan for the discipling of women

Required textbook:

Richardson, R. (2006). Reimagining evangelism: Inviting friends on a spiritual journey. Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity Press.

Another resource that could be helpful for your ministry (not required)

Fryling, A. (1989). Disciplemakers' handbook. Downers Grove, IL: Intervarsity Press.

Course requirements:

A. Pre-session requirements

1. The student will read chapters 1 – 4 of the text, Reimagining evangelism.
2. The student will make a list of her joys and fears of evangelizing other women, and another list of her joys and fears of discipling women.

B. Post-session requirements

1. The student will read chapters 5 – 8 and the appendices 1 – 4 of the text, Reimagining evangelism.
2. The student will write a “verbatim” report of an evangelistic conversation and an outline of her discipleship resources and plan.